

SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 16, 1882.

My dear sir:

I have your favor of the 14th instant.

In reply I have to say that I suppose it will always happen that some young men or their fathers will fancy that a more complete education can be had away from than at home. At any rate it is something different, and the large number of students and professors at some colleges are an attraction, the young men not knowing that
