

February 26, 1888.

My dear sir:

Your favor of the 23d inst. was duly received. I confess that my attention has not been so much given to the subject of Experiment Stations as would be necessary for me to give you any advice, and should rather trust to you and our mutual friend Miller, of Pomfret, and your agricultural Professor, than to thrust any of my opinions forward for