

Malone, Nov. 27/79.

Dear Sister Hannah,

We received your two last letters last evening and glad to hear from you. Owing to some carelessness mother has not received her mail when she ought for some time. It is not put in the right box.

You spoke of your friends forsaking you I write today to prove the contrary.

We are all well and at home (Thanksgiving day) Will. Miss Currie the leggings are just the thing are they; all "thanks" to Grandmother but the borders.

The question now is are you coming here to wear them. We are expecting you all and if
