Dear Father

I've just finished reading yours written last night and with answer for fear you may scold worse than you did before have been trying washing without boiling - Will send some better, you did not say how you print - rusted or if you had got it -

I dont know what it all means you know I told you how closely Ada M - kept at home report says her trunk was carried to the depot last night and she and her mother left on the 5 o'clock train this morning where they have gone I do not know I guess she is a ruined girl and has gone for that purpose
