My Dear Katie

Owing to the mails being about three hours late last night - I did not get your letter until this morning. I expected one so this morning I bundled Robert up and sent him to the office. I am sorry you are hoarse be careful and "you will soon be at home" where mama can take care of you. If the weather and going is favorable we shall try and come up Thursday and stay over night - if I can get anyone to stay with the children Papa says he will have the money for Mrs Tracy when you time is
