Dear Kate!

Yours was received last night. We like Miss Barton very much, and I think she likes just as well. she and Carrie are in the parlor now singing for papa and Mamma.

About your dress, if the one you speak of is nice and Mrs Chase thinks $3.75 cheap enough for it, get it. I do not think Johnson a very cheap place to trade, but she ought to know the value of such goods, and if you are not in a hurry I will look at the Bess
