

Mon. Eve.

Dear Mama, -

I was disappointed to night because I did not get an answer from you, in reply to the one which I sent you this a.m. in regard to my school.

Thinking that perhaps I may be able to get this to you before you write I thought best to write.

What I want is to have a school here, but not if it displeases Heath in the least. Now remember & tell him I said this for I do not want to get him down on me.

It is not so much the
