

Johnson, Vermont.
Sept. 27, 1886.

Dear Papa: -

Has I to furnish all there is to be burned in my stove, either wood, or coal? I supposed we were to furnish only half: but to day, talking with Mrs. Hayford about it
she says I am to furnish it all, as she made no bargain to furnish
any. I have got a cold and sore-throat and