

Johnson, Vermont.
Oct. 2., - 1886.

Dear Mamma:-

Very likely you will be looking for a letter from me by this time so I will write.

I am getting along finely now, and can see something of a change from the past.

I have the same room that I thought I should have; the one across the attic from the one I had before. Katie Chase room with me.