My dear Kate

At last I have found a few moments to spend in writing to you.

After I left you I went to F. D., and went to the dentist and sat with my mouth stretched from ear to ear for a couple of hours.

I found the Reindeer was over on an excursion, so was able to reach my sister the same day.

Among the first I met as I went aboard the boat was a gentleman friend from Grand Isle so I had a very pleasant ride home.
