

P. 1.

Johnson, Vt.
Oct. 1, 1887.

Dear Mamma:-

I received your letter this noon, and was not intending to write to you until tomorrow, but as I have my lessons for Monday nearly prepared, guess I will spare time today.

Bessie sits here singing and cutting papers for model work, so you see I am laboring under difficulties. I did my