

Prof. C. E. Norton
1882.

Cambridge, Massachusetts.

March 12, 1882.

My dear Mrs. Marsh

with sincerest respect and regard,

Very truly Yours

C. E. Norton

Your kind letter concerning the manuscript of the Infancy reached me three days ago. I hope the sending of it will be the last trouble you will have with it. I wish that it might be sent in the way that will give you the least trouble; - either by post or by private hand, direct to America, or to Mr. Lowell
