Boston, April. 15th 1857.
Mr. Marsh,

My Dear Sir your letter acknowledging the reception of my letter to the Doctor in regard to the dome, and also a letter from you in regard to the pediment decoration are received. The dome we will consider disposed of so far as the kind of material is concerned. I will see to it that the contour &c. &c. is not neglected. You may depend on my doing my best in the matter. I think with examples, figures, and the like before me, that attention and good consideration will give us the right kind of a dome. The remaining part of your letter had principally to do with the sculpture in the tympanum. I have had the matter in mind and am pleased to think you also are giving it a proper consideration. In my last letter to the Doct. I speak of your
