

Camp of Wt. 12th Regt.
Near Wolf Run Shoals, Va.
Jan'y 25th 1863.

Dear Mary:

I reached camp in safety at one o'clock. The bearer of this will take you all out here -

Tell Mrs. Blunt that the Col. wished me to say to her that he expected her <sup>to come</sup> out - He has had considerable writing to do this evening & wished me to write for all -

Capt. Ormsbee left here this afternoon &
I suppose Mrs. Ormsbee is no longer a "widder".
The ambulance cannot probably bring your baggage, all of it - You had better make a bundle of such things as you will want for a day or two & bring & leave your trunk to be brought after -

That other trunk you will leave and Mr. Stearn will take charge of it -

You can all stop at Mr. Davis' for a short time & soon you can come into camp - You can settle with Mr. Whoby, but
