

Camp Griffin Va Feb 23rd 1862

My good wife

Yours with sister

Fatis good long letter has been rec^d and read and reread as usual. I am in hopes to get one more from you before I leave here, but perhaps I shall be disapointed. Ed has got his discharge and is going to Annapolis Tuesday (this is Sunday) and I expect to meet him there on Thursday next and get home Saturday evening on the mail train, if the 8th Regt. does not leave Brattleboro before that time - if they have then I think I would go by Burlington and get home on the 10 o'clock train - Ed wants to stop in Brattleboro to see the 'May' and so do I. So you see we have got the thing planned to get home sometime if nothing happens.

To day I have had a chance to do a kindness for a "Rebel" - The Cavalry from here yesterday took 18 prisoners out near Fairfax and one of them tried to run away when they fired on him and shot him through the side but not