My Darling Mary Jane

This beautiful Sabbath morning I find myself answering your kind letter of last Sabbath. I got back from the city all right, only stopped there one day - I went and saw Martha, and took her to the Theater in the evening. Dr Child and his wife went with us, and our Chaplain - We had a grand good time. Martha is looking better than I ever saw her before, and it made me almost crazy to look at her, she looked so much like home - She was pretty stiff with me and acted all the time as though she was afraid of me, yet she let me kiss her after we got back from the Theater - I was very dignified with her all the time - She said she would write you - Surgeon Child has got a very nice woman, and I know you would
