

Head Quarters 18th VA

April 29th 1864

My Darling wife

I recd. your letter written last Sunday, to night, and it is the first one I have recd. for several days. I hear that all letters from the army have been stoped in Washington for a few days, and will continue for a few days longer or until we move which I think will be about next Monday. So you need not be surprisid if the letters should be a little old. you will get them all eventually when they will be just as good. I shall write every opportunity I have to send after we commence the march. I did receive your letter with the stamps, but must have forgot to write you about it. All goes on very quietly in
