

Camp near New Baltimore, Va.
Saturday night, Nov. 15, 1862

Dear Home,

Chaps I am exceedingly this evening in getting two good letters from home in one envelope, one from father and the other from Minnie. If they had been one day later, I might not have got them for some time, as we have orders to move in the morning.

It is very sad and discouraging to us chaplains that nearly all our sub-baths are spent in this way. Last Sunday and Sunday before last
we were on the march
