

Camp Melbrook

Boattleboro Vt

Sunday Sept 15 1861

Dear Sister -

I wrote you last night, and put the letter in my valise intending to send it down to the P. O. this morning, but while we were gone to breakfast my valise was taken by some one and I shall not probably see it again - tho perhaps I may, if I do I will forward the letter. I am writing faster than I ever thought I would be obliged to, so if you cannot read the letter you must