Camp Vermont Nov. 6th 1862.

Dear Sister

I will write you a line to night, tho' there is nothing in particular to write I suppose you will be glad to hear from us, us now Geo. is here, he arrived here all right last night, and says tell you he don't know when he shall get time to write.

You needn't worry about us for we are all well & having a good time, so far we have had a very easy time, and the prospect is that we remain
