

Camp at Union Mills Va.

Saturday Evg June 15th 1865

Dear Sister

I write to night, not because I have any thing at all to write, but because I have nothing else to do.

For the last three or four weeks we have had nothing but hot, dry, weather & every time the wind blew a little the dust would fly like snow in the winter time; to night it looks quite like rain & I think we shall get at least a shower this time. We dont get many showers in this vicinity, in fact we have had only one yet this season, they either follow the Potomac down, or go south of us, & follow the Rappahannock.

Present appearances seem to indicate that therebs intend to give us another Bull Run fight. A portion of Hookers army have moved up near Bealton. The old story of "All quiet on the Potomac" "Washington considered safe" &c, will perhaps come in fashion again.

H. A. Mason, (Cap^t Mel) left for home this morning, and as the boys did