

London 25th / 89

Dear Mother

Yourse of the 18th I got yesterday it found me as usual in good health and very comfortable you speak about. My letters as though they were few and far between I think that you do not get them all as I write very often they have all been disrupted with a pencil perhaps the writing rubbed out so they could not tell whom to send them there is nothing new to write about every thing goes on after the same old sort most of the Co has got on Biquet this morn^{ing} Cap Estowill starts for Be this week Saturday he is to