

In partnership with Mountain Pride Media

Lost Nation Theater

presents

Remember the "Twinkie Defense"?

EXECUTION OF JUSTICE

June 20 - July 7

By Emily Mann

From Tony nominee and award winner Emily Mann comes the story of the assassination of San Francisco Mayor George Mascone and Supervisor Harvey Milk (the first openly gay elected official in the U.S.), using the actual words of the participants in this controversial court case.

Sponsored by Mountain Pride Media and Diamond & Robinson, PC (specializing in civil rights)

Underwriters: City of Montpelier, National Life, The Times Argus and Mail Boxes, Etc.

Benefactors: Capitol Stationers, The Northfield Inn

Show Times:

8:00 p.m. Wednesdays - Saturdays

6:30 p.m. Sundays

1:30 p.m. Matinee Wednesday, June 26

Ticket Prices:

Preview Night Thursday, June 20 - all $12

Fri, Sat, Sun - $21 (students/seniors $18)

Wed, Thurs - $19 (students/seniors $16)

Matinee - $15 (students/seniors $13)

"If a bullet should enter my brain, let that bullet destroy every closet door."

- Harvey Milk

"A dynamite play"

- San Francisco Chronicle

Lost Nation Theater

Award-winning, intimate, professional

Great Deals on Great Theater
Summer Season tickets are still available!
With packages starting at just $65, you won't want to miss Execution of Justice,
The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie, I Do! I Do!, Much Ado About Nothing, or Charlottes Web.

AIR CONDITIONED

Montpelier City Hall Arts Center 802-229-0492 www.lostnationtheater.org

Haymarket
People's Fund

This ad was funded in part by a generous grant from the Mountain Pride Media Nonprofit Media Access Program, through a gift from the Haymarket People's Fund.