▼ New Program for AIDS Project of Southern Vermont. The AIDS Project of Southern Vermont and Twin States Women's Network are proud to introduce "Safe Talk," a new HIV prevention program for women in Bennington County. Women now represent one of the fastest-growing populations among people diagnosed with HIV/AIDS in the United States. "Safe Talk" is an opportunity for local women to come together to share their experiences of dating and intimacy in a safe environment, and learn the most up-to-date information about HIV/AIDS and safer sex. It's an opportunity to enjoy time out with friends and strengthen the Bennington women's community. Women are invited to host Safe Talk parties in their homes, in return for hosting a party, receive a $25 gift certificate. Food and childcare reimbursement will be provided. If you are interested in hosting a Safe Talk in your home, or have questions about the program, please call Rose Rahilly, Safe Talk facilitator, at the Bennington office of the AIDS Project of Southern Vermont at 802-47-8007. This program is funded through the Vermont Dept. of Health.

Employment - Volunteer Positions

▼ The Vermont Council on Women seeks volunteers to monitor legislative and other public policy work at the State House directly impacting social and economic status of Vermont women and families. The legislative session runs from January through early May. During the session Volunteers will be directed by members of VCW's Legislative Committee and will monitor statehouse committee deliberation, conduct pertinent research, and work on policy issues such as reproductive rights, pay equity, paid family leave, violence against women, early childhood care, and education. Non-session time (June through December) will be spent preparing from the upcoming legislative session, writing for our publications, and helping plan special events and projects. Candidates should have excellent writing skills necessary to supply a weekly report, strong research ability, passion for women's issues and public policy, and a commitment to social justice. Hours are flexible. For more information, please visit our website at www.women.state.vt.us. Interested applicants can call for more information, or send or e-mail resume and cover letter to: Public Policy Volunteer Program. ▼ Know HTML? Have access to Dreamweaver? Mountain Pride Media's Technology Committee is looking for community volunteers to help with various projects related to our web site www.mountainpridemedia.org. If you are interested please contact us at mpm@mountainpridemedia.org.

▼ OITM needs you! Mountain Pride Media, publisher of Out In The Mountains, depends on community members to help keep our paper out in the community by asking you to volunteer about an hour a month as a distribution volunteer. It's easy and helps to keep the cost of producing and distributing our paper down. FMI contact circulation@mountainpridemedia.org or 802-434-6486.

▼ Fame (not fortune) Awaits! Out in the Mountains is in search of writers to voice the concerns and issues of our community. We especially need people to interview others on a topic, to cover news stories, and a special person to compile news clips relevant to our community from around the nation and the world. All interested glbtq persons are invited to contact Euan Bear at editor@mountainpridemedia.org. We are a 501(c)3 organization. There are no funds to pay content contributors (maybe someday).
