P.R.I.D.E. Gives Thanks

The 2004 P.R.I.D.E. in Vermont Committee would like to thank the queer and allied communities for turning OUT for Pride 2004 this summer! It was beautiful weather and a really great Pride celebration thanks to the variety of organizations holding pride events throughout the area and weekend.

We would like to especially thank our sponsors, volunteers, vendors, exhibitors, entertainers and Burlington City Parks and Recs and all the collaborating organizations that helped to make Pride happen this year. Be sure to check out our website for Pride 2004 recaps, pictures and how to get involved/give input for Pride

2005: www.pridevermont.org

Be sure to keep an eye to our website for information on our annual community forum for input and new committee membership for planning Pride 2005 and even (yes already) planning Pride 2006 (it will be our 25th year!). Sign up for alerts, or contact us via our website!

OITM Lives Gratefully

Out in the Mountains would like to express its gratitude to the following volunteers who joined us for the stuffing of the August Issue on July 28. They are: Bob Wolff, James, George, Francesca, Bob Bolyard and Sergio Corrales. In addition we would also like to thank a first-time volunteer who asked to remain anonymous. The assistance of skilled volunteers is central to the success of OITM. We thank you all most sincerely!

We are proud to announce our newest team member. Randall Morey is an accomplished graphic designer, photographer and artist. He has begun contributing his design services to Out in the Mountains in this issue.

A belated welcome also to Lynn MacNicol, who joined our Ad Sales Teams in March. We are very happy to be working with Lynn. She brings a high degree of success to her position and warms the office with her personality.

We would also like to congratulate Out in the Mountains volunteer and co-tenant Massage Therapist Sergio Corrales for his recent "Seven Daysies" award for "Best Wellness Practitioner." ▼
