My dear Mrs. Harper;-

For the past week I have been almost in the depths of despair. When your letter arrived last week I had just completed fifty large pages of the Suffrage History desired by Miss. Agnes Ryan, she asking for full text of Suffrage Bills and details of matters of interest etc, so not having received instructions from you, I naturally concluded that was the form to follow.

Such long close application tired my eyes to such an extent that I have not been able to do any writing on the History this week, many other writing demands are upon me that I have put over for this and now must attend to first, but just as soon as I can I shall get busy again and try to get something in accordance with your suggestions and will get it to you as soon as I possibly can.

Trusting this will be satisfactory, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Annette W. Parmelee,
