

Washington, D.C.
November 14, 1890,

My dear sir:

I had only seen the proof sketch of your argument before the Committee at Montpelier until yesterday I found a full report in the Free Press.
Had I seen that earlier I certainly should not have sent you my screed as you seem to have covered the whole ground. I very much fear the result will be that you will have a lawsuit
