

Stratford, Vt May 22nd, 1893

My dear Sir:

Yours of the 18th inst. has been received.

I have been both alarmed and disgusted by the legislative action in N. H., R. I. and Conn., but the Ag. colleges in these states did not obtain from their union with existing institutions such full and complete benefits as were accorded to the Vt. college by the Vt. University. Their union was very incomplete.

I had expected last year that our legislature might be asked to remove the college from Burlington, and had rather laboriously prepared some
