

Strafford, Vt. July 12th, 1893

My dear Sir:

With this I shall mail the M.S.
of my late Address directed to you and you are at liberty to dispose of it as you please.
If the idea had not been suggested to me
most certainly I never should have thought of lodging <sup>it</sup> in your College Library, and now the vanity of it so afflicts me that I feel certain I shall sin no more in this direction.

Very truly yours

Prof. W. H. Buckham
