

Copy
United States Senate,

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

June 6, 1892

Dear sir:

Your favor of the 4th instant was duly received, and I very much regret that you are following the lead of Brother Messer from Vermont in relation to agricultural and industrial education. It is of course particularly aimed at the institution in Vermont, which I perhaps know as much about as Brother Messer. They are doing most excellent work there, both in relation to agriculture