

Washington, D.C. Oct. 28. 1877

Prof. W. H. Buckham,

Burlington, Vt

My dear Sir: Your favor of the 26th inst. is at hand, and I should certainly be glad of any resolutions to which James might come which would make him a better man. If his mind could be informed, his judgment convinced and his will made strong in Bible knowledge and faith, I should be glad, but I have no faith in any sudden enlightenment on this great subject and believe the buckblinders from sensationally made conversions bring more reproach than