

Give my regards
to all who enquire after my welfare Carter is not
the same boy
as when he left he is fat
and tough
get all the money you can
by the time
I get through for I will have
it in six feet or
in your hand
so when I
call you can send it to

Brother & Sister

Your last favors were received yesterday also Travers &c. I was glad to hear from you and to know that Loring was looking well to my little affairs in Cambridge I will be satisfied with whatever he may do as to the trustee on Wiley I dont see how they can hold him if Loring notifies Keith as I told him to that he owned the claim you also say that the slave 70 at Cornells was attached who by I dont care for that for I made a trade with Cornell on the slave stool & money drawer like this I asked him $15.00 for the whole he thought it too much and we left it to J. C. French to say how
