Your note with return to be signed was duly received and signed and returned to Powers. I followed the directions contained in his letter to you which were to sign the one he had written & did not copy for I did not think it necessary As to sugar you may send all the cubes you have a mind to and I will divide the profit - the price here will depend on quality the sooner you send the better and during the summer get all first-class sugar you can and hold until fall both tub & cube and then I can sell all you can send for it - sells better in the fall than any other time send cube now but if
