

Jan 15 75

Dear daughter

I wrote you a few days ago telling you about my back I am quite encouraged about it, the sore has not bled any for a number of days the swelling is a little diminished but quite large yet B has been quite sick with a cold for the last week, to day he is out we have not heard a word from you in a long time I wish you would both write us on receipt of this