

Jeffersonville, Vt.
Apr., 29, 1883.

My Dear Barlie,

I have been thinking to day what you told me when you was here that when you got home you would write to me if I would write back to you, but I guess my dear has forgotten it.

How do you all do? we are all well now, but Barrie has not been well untill lately she has had the St. Vitices Dance, but is all right now.

The boys and girls around here, are trying to see who can