

Minneapolis, Minn.

Nov. 20. 1884.

Dear Katie:

I suppose you think I have waited a long time before writing to you & I have. Well I have been busy most of the time writing home, & have been out considerable too. We intended to go & see S. Calhoun to day but it was too cold to enjoy ourselves much so we put it off untill it is warmer weather.

We have been having some beautiful weather here for a few days.

Do your girls have as good times at Lodge as ever?

What kind of a time did you have at your fruit supper?

Allis writes as though she did