Fargo D. T. June 2nd.

Dear friend your kind and welcome letter was duly received. Was very glad to hear from you as I was beginning to think that the Vermont folks had all forgotten me. Was sorry to hear that you had been sick. hope you are able to go to school now. You ask what I find to busy myself about. have been working on a farm for the last two weeks. When I first came here I did not know a person in the place. Fargo is quite a pleasant place in summer. In 1870 there was but one house in the town a half breed & hardy
