Dear Sister

Your letter written some time ago yet remains unanswered for the reason that I have for two or three weeks had a great deal to do and no time to write. The account you say that you have found I know nothing of whatever and did I ever mother or anyone else it would not be necessary to leave it to the decision of disintrested persons, I should pay it without this trouble and I think that you have been well provided for and you had better be contented by adding is that already received through your
