

Jeffersonville Vt,

Dear <sup>sister</sup> Kate June 14, 1885

I promised to write you I am in school now but did not think to write last night Clara is writing to you I guess last night we racted until ~~half~~ half past eight I ran with Edie and we came out just the same we have company every day this week have you heard of Mrs Duke of Johnson she was to our house she had a book of names would have liked but she asked so much for it that we did not buy it papa is after a gone to water