Dear Kate,

Barrie wanted me to write to you cause she did not want to write alone but I guess you wont like it. I set in front of Barrie + one cant do any thing but what the other does the same. But I should not have thought of this but Barrie wrote on a note + ask me to but I dont no as you will like to have me but of course I had to suite Barrie but if you dont want to read any more when you get to here you read not of course. I went up to M. R. Raymores + found a nest of ground bird there were four
