Tuesday night-

Heatie!

The children have all gone to bed so I will write a word and put in a dollar I intended when I wrote you last to have rode up and seen you last Sabbath but it was such a rainy day I dare not start out if it is as cold with you as it is here you need a fire and dont you sit in a cold room papa says we were not to finish fuel only the last half of the term and do you have a fire I dont know what papa thinks about the coal he was talking
