

[Oct. 1 1887]

Saturday evening

My dear Katie,

I will write you as lines that you may hear from us to day; intended to have written yesterday but had company all day; Miss Hager & Throp came in the forenoon and stayed until after supper; papa hired her for the winter term; I thought queer Miss Barton did not even invite them to visit her school; she ^(Dad) remains over the sabbath this week, did not say any thing about changing her boarding place until Wednesday when she ventured to speak; papa told her he had engaged board for her if she wished to change at Mr Stem hours but this did not just pefines to remain here altho the reason she gave was the boys were an