Jeffersonville Moar 25

My dear child!

Again am I seated to hold a silent-conversation with Fannie; as usual the remaining members of this family have retired, I have finished my rug this week and to day have riped and washed my brown dress and will try to get out a dress and sack for Carrie, she has a dreadfull cough but I think it is a distemper for there are so many that are troubled the same way Papa has been getting in logs
