

Johnson, Vermont.
Sat. Morning,
Sept. 11th - 1886.

Dear Mamma:—

I now have time to write you, as I promised, and let you know something about myself, and the school. School opened very large Tuesday morning, with about eighty, I think, and there have been coming in all the week, so that now I do not know exactly how many there are. There are a number of the old faces back again