

Screen

Bakersfield, Wt.

Jan. 9, 1887.

Dear Katie:-

I rec'd your very welcome letter last night and as I have an apology to make I will be prompt in answering it. I certainly thought that you owed me a letter but that you didn't care any thing about answering it and it made me feel real bad, but I thought, and hunted around and through some fooling my letter to you must not have been sent so - (Please excuse my impertinence.)

O! Katie. You dont know how