

Wartley, Pa.

March 14. 1887.

Dear Katie:

I was much pleased to get your letter and to hear a bout yourself and all the rest of the folks down there. I recieved Mrs Tracy's letter this morning she wrote that you were having a plenty of snow but we are having an abundance