

North Hyde Park
April 12th 1887

Dear friend:-

I have been thinking over my school mates, and have thought for some time that I would like to hear from you. I saw you in the street some time ago but not near enough to speak.

How are you