

Sat. - afternoon.

June 4, 1887.

My Dear Mamma:-

Your letter was recd. This noon, and I will now answer it so if Ida should come in, I might send it down by her, if she does not I will send it by the night mail.

I have clothes enough mamma without bothering about sending them home and furthermore I do not want her to be carrying them around the community, such looking