

STATEMENT.

Boston,

Oct. 7.

1887.

Miss Kate E. Fletcher.

To D. C. Heath & Co., DR.

To account rendered,

To Mdse.,

32

Dear Katie,

I send you this statement and supposed it was paid; you had better reply to them. We are all well, baby is splended, you will not know her, I expect papa will start Wednesday with the cattle, Burt Howley will stay with us and do the chores, Miss Barton is home today I am in a hurry to go to washing and can't write any more now and besides there is no news. Carrie has just got her dress from C - good by
 Norma

The above is a statement of your account to date, which we trust will be found correct.

We will make sight draft for the amount on the inst., unless remittance is previously received.