

Johnson, W., Dec. 31, 1887.

Dear mamma:-

I send this and want you to sign it, and return it, if possible Mon. noon. I shall give $25. of it to Mr. Andrews, and shall need the rest for my pictures. I hope papa will know by this next week where the rest is coming from. I shall need some more for spending money. A pair of shoes, any way.

Bessie is quite sick. She has terrible headaches, and @ so nervous. It makes it hard for me. For I'm about run out. But you needn't worry any; I'm all right, only tired a little. I shan't realize how tired I am, any way, till a little of this excitement is over, and I have time to cool down a bit.

I'll be glad when examinations are over, O mamma! you don't know.

We have a lot of company here and have had for a long time, and I'll be glad when they are gone for good, for everything is noisy and in a stir.

I have my delivery now and have
